

Two-Generation Learn & Lead

A Family Course for Community Change

Families
learning together
Families building
their community

Meet new people

Gain skills for work and school

Be a Leader in your community

Sign up for an info session

Monday, March 6 @ 5:30 p.m.

— or —

Sunday, March 12 @ 2:30 p.m.

South Philadelphia
Community Health & Literacy Center
1700 South Broad Street

SPACE LIMITED!

CALL TODAY 215.686.5250

or Email AdultEdu@phila.gov

OFFICE OF

Adult Education

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

215.686.5250 | AdultEdu@phila.gov | Philaliteracy.org

What is Two-Generation Learn & Lead?

Two-Gen Learn & Lead is a new 12-week course for whole families. Over 12 Saturdays, families will learn new skills and gain confidence together, as they choose and plan a service project to better their community. Parents and children who learn together build stronger bonds, and boost skills for work, school and leadership.

What are the benefits?

- Gain job skills
- Improve your resume
- Meet new people
- Develop leadership skills
- Change your community for better

Who can enroll?

Parents or caregivers with at least one child can enroll.

Parents or caregivers: 18 to 64 years of age

Children: pre-K to 6th grade

How do we start?

Sign up for an info session

Monday, March 6 @ 5:30 p.m

— or —

Sunday, March 12 @ 2:30 p.m.

South Philadelphia Community Health & Literacy Center

1700 South Broad Street

SPACE LIMITED!

CALL TODAY 215.686.5250
or Email AdultEdu@phila.gov

